

Camperdown Burns Festival

July 5th to 8th, 2019

presents

Winter Music Workshops 3-5 July

In the beautiful historic town of Camperdown, 2¼ hours from Melbourne

Luke Plumb

Mandolin & Bouzouki $60 adults; $30 students (under 19)

(two sessions per day over 3 days 9.00am-10.30am & 1.00pm-2.00pm)

In this Course, Luke will explore these instruments and the way they have been used to play music and songs in the Celtic tradition. From his experience playing and recording with Irish Legend Andy Irvine, to his years touring the world with Shooglenifty, Luke has a unique perspective on these instruments and the roles they play in these traditions

www.lukeplumb.com

Kate Burke

Fiddle & Concertina $60 adults; $30 students (under 19)

(two sessions per day over 3 days 10.30am-noon & 2.00pm-3.00pm)

Kate is a multi-instrumentalist and singer

Who has played with Ruth Hazelton, Trouble in the Kitchen, Luke Plumb, Judy Small, David Ross McDonald and Pete Wild.

Two of Kates albums have been named as folk album of the year by the National Film and Sound Archive. Kate's workshops are perfect for reed and string players who want to develop and expand their tune and song playing skills and better understand how reeds & strings can complement each other.

www.kateandruth.com

Claire Patti

Junior Choir & Senior Choir $30 adults; $15 students (under 19)

Junior Choir over 3 days at 3.30pm

Senior Choir 7.30pm-9.00pm Weds & Thurs 5.30pm-6.30pm Friday

Claire Patti is a versatile passionate musician with years of experience as a choral director, performer, arranger & educator She recently directed the Women's chorus at the 2018 Melbourne International Singers Festival and the "Festival of 1000 voices" in Yarrowonga which featured choirs from around Victoria.

The junior choir classes (under 18) will run at 4.00pm and one senior choir class at 7.30pm on Weds/Thurs & Friday TBC

www.clairepatti.com.au

Geoff McArthur

Guitar $60 Adults; $30 students (under 19)

(two sessions per day over 3 days 10.30am-noon & 2.00pm-3.00pm)

Geoff is a composer, performer and music mentor who plays across a wide range of musical genres. He recently accompanied renowned Irish fiddler Manus McGuire on his Australian tour. Geoff is also an award-winning songwriter, (Australian song writers Association 2007 & Roddy Read Memorial Award 2009) He has also been a mentor to over 50 young musicians as co-ordinator to the Korroit Lake School, "Stars of the Lake" project. Geoff's guitar workshops are aimed at the "advanced beginner" or intermediate player. Morning sessions will focus on techniques for song accompaniment. Afternoon sessions will focus on accompanying traditional tunes

Andy Rigby

Build your own PVC concert whistle workshop (Friday only at 3.30pm)

$45 Adults; $20 Students (under 19)

NB. Additional fee that is independent of instrumental registration fee.

Andy Rigby has carved out a unique niche for himself in the world of music and is one of Australia's leading designers, makers, players and teachers of harp. He also plays flutes whistles and Marimbas. Andy is giving musicians the opportunity to build their very own concert whistle.

The workshop covers the design principals, correct placement and drilling of holes and tuning and voicing of the instrument.

www.andyrigby.net

Merran Moir

Whistles $60 Adults; $30 Students (Under 19)

(two sessions per day over 3 days 9.00am-10.30am & 1.00pm-2.00pm)

Scottish Country Dancing $15 Adults; $8 Students (under 18)

(One session per day over 3 days at 5.00pm)

Merran grew up in a musical family. She feels fortunate her father, Donald Blair, continued the family tradition of teaching bagpipes to her and her siblings, as well as various other instruments. There was always music of some kind in the house; bringing happy memories of frequent travels for music, performances, and ceilidhs. She actively performs with numerous folk bands, recordings, community music groups, and informal sessions. A music teacher by profession, Merran's approach is relaxed yet informative.

Peter Moir

Pipe Band Drumming

Free "come and try" session (1 hour)

Friday 10.30am

Peter Moir has been a drummer for more than 30 years. A longstanding member of the Warrnambool Pipe Band, he is committed to the band's active recruitment and teaching program, as well as playing and competing with the band. He has been a guest player with The Pipe Band Club, and competed with them at a number of competitions in Scotland in 2013, culminating with The World Pipe Band Championships. He co-ordinated and performed with "Drumworx", a performance group in high demand at Scottish festivals. As his drum workshops are very popular, please register early!

www.wadpadi.org.au

Donald Blair OAM

Highland Bagpipes

Free "Come and try" session (1 hour)

Friday 2.00pm

Donald has spent a lifetime teaching bagpipes to anyone who wishes to play. He began learning the bagpipes from his father (Scottish immigrant) at the age of eight. He has continued this passion throughout his entire life and as a result has become well-known in piping circles both in Australia and overseas for not only his playing but his tutoring technique. Recently awarded an OAM for his services to the local and piping community, head along to his workshop to learn more about the intricacies of Scotland's iconic instrument.

www.wadpadi.org.au

Participants & tutors showcase concert

Theatre Royal 7.30pm Friday

Informal music sessions in the pub Weds/Thurs from 8.00pm

NB All classes limited capacity, so please book early
NB Workshop times may be subject to small changes

Bookings: catherineoflynn560@gmail.com

Phone: 0407 056 126

Or book and pay through the website:

www.camperdownburnsfestival.com

